- e. The application fee becomes non-refundable if you refuse all suitable host companies introduced by us.
- f. The application fee becomes non-refundable if you are not able to obtain a valid visa to enter Japan.

- g. The application fee becomes non-refundable if you have received and/or come in on a Working Holiday Visa and are looking for paid internship opportunities.

6 Program Fee

We will issue an invoice for the program fee once your internship has been confirmed. This payment must be paid within five (5) business days of the invoice date. Cultural activities are included in your program and depend on the season and the number of interns active with us at the time of your internship. The costs of these activities are included in the program fee.

Applicants who are not listed on the visa exemption must pay the full fee when signing up. For our refund policy please see point 10.4.

6.1 Payment of Additional Service Fees

We are not responsible for any bank transfer or additional PayPal fees (on top of the fixed fees). You shall bear such costs should they arise. If any such extra charges are levied on Zernern, we will invoice you for reimbursement accordingly. Payment must be paid within five (5) business days of the invoice date.

6.2 Public Transportation Commutation Pass & Data Sim Card

We will provide a public transportation commutation pass pre-charged with JPY2,000. This pass is rechargeable and is yours to keep.

We will provide you with a rechargeable data sim card of 1GB valid for 1 month. Zernern is not responsible for any recharge or technical issues with the sim card.

6.3 Emergency Support

We will provide 24-hour emergency support. You will have a person for emergency contact available to you 24-hours a day, 7 days a week. We will also assist you in the unlikely event you require a doctor or other medical attention.

7 Visa

We accept applicants on the visa exemption list (http://www.mofa.go.jp/j_info/visit/visa/short/novisa.html) or the Working Holiday visa program. Applicants whose nationality is not listed on the visa exemption list can engage a visa agent introduced by us for an additional cost. It is important you secure your visa approval prior to applying for an internship through us. Applicants who are not listed on the visa exemption must pay the full fee when signing up. For our refund policy please see point 10.4.

8 Accommodation Service

We will assist you with securing your accommodation in Japan. Depending on your budget your options are as follows:

1. Shared house
2. Private apartment

8.1 Payment for accommodation

All accommodation payments will be made by you as directed by us or the housing company.

8.2 Additional fees

You acknowledge the housing company may require payment in addition to the rental fee for cleaning, linen, security keys, bond or other items. The payment for such additional costs will be your responsibility to pay. You will be directly liable to the housing company for any damage to the accommodation arising from your actions or omissions.

9 Insurance

9.1 Health and Travel Insurance

You are responsible for securing travel and health insurance that ensures coverage and indemnity for death, personal injury, physical or mental illness, public liability, hospital cover, and transportation to your country of residence.

9.2 Evidence of Insurance

You must send us a copy of your insurance policy.

9.3 Medical Health Authorization

You must inform us if you have (or have had) any physical or mental illness or other health issues that may impact your stay in Japan and your ability to conduct your internship as required by your host company. You are financially responsible for any medical treatment received that is not covered by your provided insurance.

10 Your Obligations and Responsibilities

10.1 Your obligations:

- a. Stay in regular contact with us and respond to all communication from us within three (3) business days.

10.5 Cancellation by the host company

10.5.1 Application Fee

The application fee is non-refundable if your internship gets cancelled by the host company.

10.5.2 Prior to arrival in Japan

If the host company cancels the internship prior to your arrival in Japan, through no fault of your own, we will try to find a replacement host company for you to consider. This might delay the original starting date. If you decide to withdraw your application due to cancellation by the host company in such case a 30% refund will be available.

10.5.3 During your internship in Japan

If the host company terminates the internship for reasons unrelated to you or your performance, we will attempt to arrange a new internship placement for you at no additional cost. There will be no refund if your internship is terminated due to your behavior or if you decide to withdraw.

10.5.4 Termination by Zentern

We maintain the right to cancel your contract and terminate your internship immediately, without refund, due to unprofessional or inappropriate behavior. Examples of such behavior, either prior to or during your internship, include physical or mental harm to others, not showing up or being late for work, gossiping or spreading negativity, theft, impolite actions or language, not being cooperative or responding to our messages, lack of flexibility or professional behavior, etc. After the program has been terminated, you will accept all responsibility for your own actions, risks and liabilities.

10.6 Failure to secure internship placement by Zentern

If we fail to secure an internship placement at your preferred starting date no program fees will be charged. Please see 5.1 regarding the application fee.

11 Indemnity

You indemnify us in respect of any claim, action, proceeding, judgment or demand made or brought by or against us, or in respect of any loss, liability, cost expense, damage, charge or penalty suffered by us arising out of:

- a. Any action or omission by you.
- b. Any breach of the terms of this agreement by you.
- c. The internship.

12 Confidentiality

You agree to not disclose any confidential information obtained as a result of working with the host company. Therefore, no reports, communications or publications shall be disseminated or shown to third-parties.

13 Duration of Agreement

The agreement between us and you is valid from the dates written on the application form. Zentern does not provide any support or responsibility if you decide to stay in Japan after completion of your internship.

14 Jurisdiction

You agree hereby to follow the rules and laws in Japan. The terms of this agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Japan.

15 Marketing Promotions and Material

You lend your consent and authorizes Zentern to use your name (or nickname / first name), videos, photos, files, etc. as well as any comments or statements made by you, in publications or materials for commercial and/or promotional purposes.

16 Your warranty

Your application is valid for 12 months from the date Zentern has received your application fee.

Payment of the Application Fee via PayPal confirms your agreement and acceptance of the Terms & Conditions outlined in this agreement.
